

About the Workshop

Sri Andal, One of the twelve Alwars and the only female saintess, lived in the first half of 8th century A.D in Srivilliputhur. Andal imagined herself as a cow-girl at the time of Sri Krishna, collecting all girls at Ayarpadi at dawn during the Tamil month of Margali.

The Tiruppavai consists of thirty stanza. The procedure of awakening her mates and proceeding to the river-bed with Bhajan and to bath the Deity, is the topic of Tiruppavai.

Tiruppavai teaches us to feel emotion while praying to the Lord. It enables us to perceive the Prakriti, Paramatma and Jeevas merging with each other by Para Bhakthi. Another work of Andal is the Nachiyar Tirumoli which consists set of 143 verses about lord Krishna.

About the Institution

Seethalakshmi Ramaswami College, an autonomous institution, affiliated to Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, accredited by NAAC with A+ grade (4th cycle) is a renowned women’s institution in Tamil Nadu. This college which had a humble beginning in 1951 now offers 24 Undergraduate programmes, 15 Postgraduate programmes, 7 M.Phil. programmes, 8 Ph.D. programmes, 1 Community College course (Sericulture), and 5 B.Voc. programmes. The college has been awarded research funds from DBT under Star College Scheme to the tune of 18 lakhs, to strengthen the Undergraduate Life Science programmes (Botany and Zoology) and 1 crore DST-FIST college level category I, comprising all Science departments. The department of Mathematics received 28 lakhs, department of Physics received 38 lakhs and department of Chemistry received 32 lakhs at department level DST-FIST fund. Seethalakshmi Ramaswami College was one of the first colleges in Tiruchirappalli to opt for autonomous status in the year 1987. This has allowed us to experiment and innovate in curricular aspects. Another first to its credit is that Seethalakshmi Ramaswami College happened to be one of the first 7 colleges in the country to be accredited by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in 1999. The institution is marching ahead successfully by empowering women through quality education on the strong foundation of ethical, moral and cultural values. The college is aspiring to scale greater heights as a institution for higher education, serving the motto “Nothing Equals Wisdom”

About the Department

B.A. Music was started in the year 1966 under the aided section. Since its inception, the students have secured I rank consecutively. Being the favourite subject of our founder, M.A. Music was also started in 1987 under self - financed section.
